Death, due to its prominent place in human culture, is frequently imagined as a personified force, also known as the Grim Reaper. In some mythologies, the Grim Reaper causes the victim's death by coming to collect that person. In turn, people in some stories try to hold on to life by avoiding Death's visit, or by fending Death off with bribery or tricks.

A fellow believer wrote me asking why few are chosen (for salvation/heaven) when many are called. When people are called by God, we usually expect them to respond to the call and begin the process leading to salvation. The puzzling phrase, "For many are called, but few are chosen" comes in the conclusion of Jesus' parable of the wedding feast.
