The original Japanese title, Hadashi de Bara wo Fume, translates to "Stepping on Roses Barefoot". Anyone who knows what it's like to prick a finger with a rose thorn can imagine how excruciating stepping on roses barefoot would be. And that's exactly how heart-rending this series feels to read (I've read the original Japanese manga).

Stepping on Roses was a manga that surprised me with how much I loved it. Vol. 1 really sucked me and each Vol. continued to do that until a few hours later I had already completed the whole series. I was sad to see it end as the plot is mixed with romance, scandals, and historical Japanese fashion.
