Just because you design, it doesn't make you creative. By definition, artistry and artistic ability is the cultivation of skills and talents honed toward creating fine works of art: painting, drawing, sculpting, musical composition, etc. In short: art is an original creation with the intention of sparking an emotion or response in the viewer,...

The author is mixing up the definitions of artist and performer. Kanye West is not an artist he is a performer, the same went for Billie Holiday. Every performer is called an artist today so as to be politically correct. Albert Einstein was not an artist either, nor was he creative in the sense of creating works of art.
