John 4:5-42 The Big Surprise (Hoffacker) The woman confesses her faith in the messiah who is to come, and Jesus says that he is that messiah. He thus reveals his identity not to his disciples, not to his own people, not to their religious leaders, but to this person who is marginal three times over: A Samaritan, a woman, and an exile among her own kind.

The Bloody Chamber. I remember how, that night, I lay awake in the wagon-lit in a tender, delicious ecstasy of excitement, my burning cheek pressed against the impeccable linen of the pillow and the pounding of my heart mimicking that of the great pistons ceaselessly thrusting the train that bore me through the night, away from Paris, away from girlhood, away from the white, enclosed quietude ...
